

I am writing in response to the FCC considering preempting state Telephone Privacy laws in favor of adopting one lower national standard. I consider it an invasion of my privacy to receive unsolicited sales calls. Since I registered my name with the Indiana Attorney General, I have seen a drop in calls from an average of six per day to one or two per week. Please do not adopt this proposal and allow the states to regulate their own telephone privacy law protections. Thank you.